

Duck Lake Regional Interpretive Centre

FRONTIER OF FIRST NATION, METIS AND PIONEER CULTURES FROM 1870-1905.

“OUR OWN BACKYARDS” BY ANNETTE HENBID

Chestnut Gentleman

Late Harvest

Autumn Breeze

The Duck Lake Regional Interpretive Centre in honored to host “Our Own Backyards” art showing by Saskatchewan artist Annette Henbid.

Annette grew up in Saskatoon while enjoying weekend at the cabin in the Shell Lake area. This area is often an inspiration for her landscaped.

Now, from her Prince Albert home, Annette usually works realistically with watercolours.

*Located between Prince Albert and Saskatoon on the corner of Hwy. #11 and Hwy. #212. The Art Gallery in the Duck
Lake Regional Interpretive Centre.*

Star Gazers

DUCK LAKE REGIONAL INTERPRETIVE CENTRE

Box 328
Duck Lake, Sask.
S0K 1J0

Phone: 306-467-2057
Fax: 306-467-2257

E-mail: duckmuf@sasktel.net

Art Gallery Open

Regular admissions for the Interpretive Centre apply:
Pre-schoolers—Free, Students $2.50, Seniors $3.50,
Adults $4.50 and Family $12.00.